The following Testimony on behalf of our deceased Friend Abigail Miller has been read at this time and directed to be signed by the clerk.

A Short Testimony from Seabrook Monthly Meeting concerning Abigail Miller.

Our Esteemed Friend Abigail Miller, late wife of Jonathan Miller of Pittsfield New Hampshire, was the daughter of John and Mary Tobson of Sandwich Strafford County N.H. both members of our religious Society,

She was born the 8th of the 3rd Month 1788, and became a member of this Monthly Meeting in 1818, and at that time she was evidently under the Masters preparing hand for future usefulness, having been made sensible at times even from early life that if she was faithful to the manifestations of Divine light in her own mind it would be her lot publicly to espouse the cause of her Divine Lord and Master,

After many close trials and deep provings, through which it was her lot to pass, she was enabled, through obedience to Him, who alone can qualify his servants, for his work, to occupy that gift which he was pleased to bestow upon her, much to the satisfaction of her friends,

She had not those advantages of an early education that many have, yet it pleased her Divine Lord and Master, to bestow upon her those gifts which rendered her, by the faithful improvement thereof very useful.

After she was approved as a Minister in 1829, she was frequently engaged abroad in the service of truth, among friends, and others in different parts of this Yearly Meeting, and also made one religious visit within the limits of New York Yearly Meeting.

She was frequently engaged in visiting families, not only when abroad in the service of truth, but also in her own monthly meeting, a service for which she was eminently qualified, being enabled in a remarkable manner to point out the states and situations of individuals with great clearness, as many of us have experienced to our encouragement and comfort.

In her communications in the ministry she was weighty and impressive, and carefully waited to know the right time to move; In doctrine sound and edifying, and often led publicly to advocate the doctrine of the Divinity of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and to preach salvation to others only through the mediation and propitiatory sacrifice of our crucified Redeemer, and she lived and died firm in the belief, that there was, and always would be, a remnant preserved who would faithfully maintain these precious doctrines of primitive Christianity.

Christianity as held forth by our worthy ancestors; Although she apprehended (as she frequently said in her last sickness) that severe trials and deep provings, were coming upon our society, that she believed it would be emptied as from vessel to vessel until it was purified from its dross, and expressed a belief that if she should be raised from her present sickness it would be her lot to experience new and at present hidden trials, but whether she lived or died it was her greatest desire that the Lords will might be done.

In her domestic circle she was an affectionate wife, and a tender mother carefully endeavouring to bring up her children in the fear and admonition of the Lord. Although she was of a delicate constitution and often suffered much from bodily infirmity, yet she was a diligent attender of her own Quarters, Monthly and particular meetings.

In a large circle of friends and acquaintance she was much beloved; easy of access, cheerful in conversations, kind and sympathizing in her feelings, and being acquainted with sorrows herself, she knew well how to administer consolation to others; she was truly a nursing mother to the afflicted of every condition within the reach of her benevolence; and we believe her loss is deeply felt not only by those of our own religious society, but by others of her acquaintance generally.

In her death we feel that the Church sustains a great loss; One who filled a conspicuous station has been removed, and while we contemplate this, may we be willing if called, to step into her path, which we believe was an exercised one, not only for herself, but for the welfare of the Church, the prospering of Zion, and the enlargement of her borders.

She ~~had~~ bore a distressing illness of several months with much patience and christian resignation, She expressed that much of the time of her confinement she had been tried with depression of spirit, very much divested of every thing good while a flood of temptations poured in upon her weak mind, that she felt the need, the great need, of watchfulness unto prayer, yet at times she felt the consoling evidence of the Fathers love, and said she felt herself reposing in the arms of her dear Redeemer with great delight.

For several days previous to her departure, she was sensible that she was drawing near her final close, and entreated her weeping family to cheerfully give her up, as there was nothing in her way, that her work was done, just before her final close, she broke out in an ardent fervent supplication, for herself, her family and the Church. Her request relative to herself was evidently granted, and she soon passed away without groan or struggle, like one going into a quiet sleep, the 29th of 11 Mo. 1835, and we doubt not that her purified spirit has entered that mansion prepared for the righteous in the kingdom of her dear Redeemer, there to join the anthems of praises, to his name forever.
